VARTIKA SHUKLA CONFERRED LIFETIME CONTRIBUTION AWARD

- Awarding Body and Industry Impact: The award was presented at the FICCI Chemicals & Petrochemicals Awards 2025 (held in Jan 2026) in New Delhi. It celebrates her over three decades of leadership and transformative impact on India's core industrial sectors, specifically in refineries, chemicals, and petrochemicals.
- Champion of Self-Reliance: The honor recognizes her role in advancing the Make in India initiative by leading EIL to develop indigenous engineering and project management capabilities, reducing reliance on foreign technologies.
- Strategic Shift to Green Energy: Shukla has played a key role in expanding EIL into sustainable sectors, leading initiatives in green hydrogen, biofuels, and renewable energy in line with India's net-zero and energy transition goals.

INDIA RANKS 6TH IN ASIA MANUFACTURING INDEX 2026

- Mixed Pillar Performance: While India ranks 1st in Workforce (due to labor size and cost) and 3rd in Economy (driven by high GDP growth), it struggles in other areas. It ranks poorly in Tax Policy (9th), International Trade (9th), and Political Risk (9th), with the report highlighting high logistics costs and administrative complexity as major bottlenecks.

- Strategic "Red Flag" for Make in India: The index highlights India's $1 trillion manufacturing goal by FY2026, emphasizing the need to improve logistics, policy stability, and digital infrastructure beyond labor advantages to stay competitive.

AMELIA VALVERDE APPOINTED AS COACH OF INDIAN WOMEN'S FOOTBALL TEAM

- World Cup Pedigree: Valverde, 39, is a highly experienced international coach who led the Costa Rican national team to their only two FIFA Women's World Cup appearances (2015 and 2023). In 2015, she made history as the second-youngest head coach in World Cup history at just 28 years old.
- Immediate Mission: She has already joined the Indian squad ("Blue Tigresses") at their training camp in Antalya, Türkiye. Her primary goal is to lead the team through the AFC Women's Asian Cup 2026, which begins in March, with a focus on securing India's first-ever qualification for the FIFA Women's World Cup.

- Proven Championship Success: Beyond international football, Valverde comes with recent club success, having led Mexican side CF Monterrey to a historic Bicampeonato (two consecutive titles) in 2024. She was also named the Mexican Balón de Oro Best Coach and the 2016 CONCACAF Female Coach of the Year.

FORMER INDIAN FOOTBALL TEAM DEFENDER ILYAS PASHA PASSED AWAY

- East Bengal Stalwart & Captain: Pasha was a mainstay of the East Bengal defense from 1990 to 1998, a period often cited as one of the club's most successful eras. He famously captained the team to its first-ever international title at the Wai Wai Cup in 1993 and led them during their historic 6-2 victory over Iraq's Al-Zawraa SC.
- International Representation: Pasha earned eight caps for the Indian national team. He made his debut in 1987 against Bulgaria and went on to represent the country in two editions of the Nehru Cup (1987, 1991), the 1991 SAF Games, and the 1992 Asian Cup qualifiers.
- Highly Decorated Domestic Career: He also won the Santosh Trophy twice representing Bengal (1993, 1995) after starting his career with his home state, Karnataka.
