ALYSSA HEALY ANNOUNCES RETIREMENT AFTER INDIA SERIES

- Strategic Farewell Series: Healy will retire after the home series against India in March 2026, captaining the ODIs and playing her final match in the one-off Test at the WACA, while skipping the T20Is.
- Reason for Departure: Citing mental fatigue, injuries, and a loss of competitive edge, the 35-year-old announced her exit early to allow a smooth leadership transition before the 2026 Women's T20 World Cup.
- End of a Golden Era: Healy retires as one of the most decorated players in history, having won eight World Cups (six T20 and two ODI) and a Commonwealth Games gold medal. She leaves the game with over 7,000 international runs and 275 dismissals, widely regarded as the primary architect of Australia's era of global dominances.

PUNJABI SINGER KAKA LAUNCHES 'FRIENDO' APP

- Advanced Emergency Response: The app features a dedicated SOS button that sends instant alerts and real-time location tracking to trusted contacts. For situations where manual operation is impossible, it includes alternative triggers like shake detection and voice commands.

- Discreet Protection Tools: 'Friendo' includes a "Stealth Mode" for discreet monitoring and an automatic audio/video recording feature. This allows users to gather digital evidence during dangerous encounters that can later assist law enforcement.
- Community and Educational Support: Beyond immediate safety, the app offers a resource library containing self-defense tutorials and information on legal rights. It also provides a community forum for users to share experiences and seek support from others nearby.
